3. The PC Software Center (PCSC) completed its first quarter of operation on 5 February. During the three months since its opening, the PCSC has distributed over 550 software packages valued in excess of $124,000. The Directorate of Intelligence, purchasing 64 percent of the packages, has been the most active customer (see table below). The Directorate of Administration acquired 27 percent. Within the DI, the Office of Soviet Analysis (SOVA) was the largest customer, accounting for a third of the Directorate's total. Within the DA, OIT was the largest purchaser, obtaining some 42 percent of the Directorate's purchases. Approximately 70 percent of all software products purchased are fully or partially supported by OIT. Among all offices, SOVA made the largest purchase (75 packages) of non-supported packages.
